MISCELLANEOUS.

(Nos. 64 to 84.)

SUBJECT NO. 64.

Appointment of a Non-Official Member to the Executive Council.

Messrs. H. Krishnasastry, Krishnarajpete Taluk, and C. Narasimhiah, Heggaddevenkote Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—To keep up with the advanced views of the country, a non-official member may be taken to the State Executive Council, preference being given to the members of the Assembly.

SUBJECT NO. 65.

According the privilege of moving and passing resolutions to the Representative Assembly.

Messrs. Suryanarayana Rao, Hassan Taluk, and H. Krishnasastri, Krishnarajapete Taluk and C. Narasimaiya, Heggaddevankote Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—(1) The Representative Assembly may be accorded the privilege of moving and passing resolutions binding upon Government, subject to certain defined restrictions.

(2) The Representative Assembly may be given the power of voting on the Budget and of moving resolutions.

SUBJECT NO. 66.

Amalgamation of the Representative Assembly and the Legislative Council.

Messrs. C. Vasudeva Rao and T. B. Mallegowda, Chikmagalur Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—The budget discussion and interpellations are common to both the institutions, excepting the subject of Legislature. The laws passed by the Government of India are generally adopted in the State, with modifications according to local requirements. The members of the Representative Assembly discuss the Laws that are to be initiated by the Government in the State. Government may introduce the subject on any law that may have to be adopted in the State before the Dasara Representative Assembly. A Committee may sit to consider the pros and cons between the Dasara and the Birthday Sessions of the Assembly and after the Committee's due consideration the subject may be placed before the Assembly during the Birthday Session for final decision and Royal assent. The Legislative Council and the Representative Assembly may be amalgamated.

SUBJECT NO. 67.

Mysore Civil Service Examination.

Messrs. A. Ananthiah, Shimoga Taluk; A. Shamanna, Shimoga Municipality and C. Subba Rao, Shimoga District Board.

Summary of Representation.—The present system of appointing a large number of candidates that pass the Mysore Civil Service Examination is not satisfactory. It is apprehended that men of very ordinary attainments will flood the Civil Service, giving room for deterioration and dissatisfaction in men of approved service. Not more than three of the best successful candidates may be appointed at a time.

SUBJECT NO. 68.

Nomination of Probationers.

Messrs. A Ananthiah, Shimoga Taluk; A. Shamanna, Shimoga Municipality and C. Subba Rao, Shimoga District Board.

Summary of Representation.—Only persons residing in Mysore and Bangalore are being nominated as Probationary Assistant Commissioners. The districts of Shimoga, Kadur and Chitaldrug are not being considered. The question of paucity of eligible candidates does not arise if the question is approached with sympathy. Malnad graduates of respectable families may be nominated as Probationers.

SUBJECT NO. 69.

Communal Representation in Public Service.

Messrs. G. Paramasiviah, Mysore Lingayet Education Fund Association and Issac, Indian Christian Association, Bangalore.

Summary of Representation.—An adequate representation of different communities may be secured in Public Service by appointing educated and qualified young men among them, particularly in higher grades.
